NEURO ONCOLOGY INFORMATION NETWORK (NOgIN)

What Is NOgIN?

The Neuro Oncology Information Network (NOgIN) is a non profit organisation which aims to provide specific education and support for adults diagnosed with a brain tumour. This multidisciplinary group has a special interest in the many aspects of care and treatment for adults who have been diagnosed with a brain tumour.

Where is NOgIN?

The Neuro Oncology Information Network (NOgIN) is a brain tumour information and support group developed as a joint initiative between the Clinical Nurse Consultants at Westmead Private Hospital and Westmead Hospital, Sydney.

How is NOgIN Funded?

NOgIN is a charitable non-profit organisation administered by the Millennium Foundation, the primary fundraising body for the Westmead Hospitals campus, supporting the Westmead Millennium Institute and Westmead Hospital. The research conducted at the Institute assists the quality of human life on a global scale, and the Foundation is proud of its ability to support this organisation. All monies donated specifically for NOgIN go directly into our designated fund to support research and improve patient management of brain tumours.

NOgIN will benefit substantially from your support. The form attached provides an opportunity for you to make a direct donation to NOgIN. Contributions will be gratefully received and a tax deductible receipt provided.
